

A Song for the Republic

In 1930s Türkiye, when the young Republic was undergoing radical transformation, this impressive story of the cultural and artistic revolution led by Atatürk reveals the country's brave steps towards modernization and the spirit of the period with pride and deep emotion.